

Community of Practice Research-Policy-Practice Translation

Research-Policy-Practice Translation Community of Practice

Workshop August 2024

We are seeking individuals and organisations to express interest in sharing experiences of research-policy-practice translation in a case study format with small rotating groups.

Introduction:

The vision of the the Research-Policy-Practice Translation Community of Practice (RPPT CoP) is for timely and effective translation of research into policy and practice to become embedded into public policy processes across sectors and disciplines. This will support holistic evidence-informed, efficient, and collaborative approaches to societal challenges.

This RPPT CoP workshop is the fourth in the series aiming to forge and foster interdisciplinary relationships and collaboration, as well as research-policy-practice translation capacity and capability development among CoP participants.

This workshop will be jointly facilitated by Kristy Nixon and Carmel Williams.

COP Objectives:

- To support research-policy-practice translation capacity development through workshops and the establishment of a resource repository
- To promote interaction among individuals, teams, and organisations from a diverse range of sectors and disciplines, to support cross-sectoral collaboration
- To facilitate information sharing and communication between researchers, policy actors and practitioners
- To advocate for more effective research-policy-practice translation practices
